Our guiding patron has smiled favorably on her "golden-hearted" boys once again. She has seen fit to place Sigma Phi Epsilon in a prominent position in every phase of campus activity. Miss Patron's will was ably administered by Chuck Bartoe, president; Jim Salsgiver, vice president; Foster Hepler, recording secretary, and Len Harding, corresponding secretary.

It seems to have become a perennial prerogative for the Sig Eps to win the football, basketball, and softball cups. Thus far this year we have lived up to this legacy by winning the football and basketball cups. In football the Alpha Sigs gave us a "bad time," and in basketball it was the Sigma Nu's—both were worthy competitors. Our athletic accomplishments, however, did not stop here. The varsity football squad found eleven Sig Eps among their number, with Johnny Earon, Dick Specker, and Dick Solomon holding down the managerial jobs. There were only four men on the basketball squad who were not from our fraternity. Here we found nine Block W's. We had two men on the swimming team. Eight S. P. E. lettermen could be found kicking each other on the soccer field. Cross country lettermen numbered four. Norm Monack handled the manager's job of the last two teams, as well as the track team.

Other Sig Ep accomplishments this year were to be found in the persons of the presidents of the senior, junior, and freshman classes. In our fold we also found the editor of this book. Len also served as Sports Editor of the Holcad.

Sigma Phi Epsilon

Jim Ross succeeded Mick McDaniel as president of Block W. The highlights of our social events consisted of a Christmas party in South Park and our Spring Formal held at the University club in Pittsburgh. Our house parties fared well indeed, as did our chapel program. For this we thank Dick Specker, our tireless social chairman.

Finally, we present our accomplishments within the fraternity itself. Great strides have been made in redecoration, beginning with the house having been painted last summer. This fall all the study rooms, the living rooms, and dining room were papered and painted. Our prize project, however, was the completion of our memorial recreation room in the cellar. The fraternity began the regular publication of its own alumni paper, SPE SPEAKS.

Yes, this has been a good year for us. Thanks Miss Patron.

The Alpha Sigs have really kept the social calendar in a whirl. Homecoming found the Alpha Sigs taking the cup for decorations, choosing a miniature "carnival" for their theme. Rushing proved successful with twenty-five freshmen and thirteen upperclassmen accepting bids for pledging into the fraternity.

On November 5, a formal initiation was held, at which time Robert F. Galbreath, better known as "Prexy," became a brother Alpha Sig. The chapel program of the year found "Hellsapoppin" on Westminster's campus. The highlight of interfraternity rivalry was displayed as our pledges dunked the Sigma Phi Epsilon pledges in a "tug of war" at Neshannock Creek on November 26; proof that "brain plus brawn" overcomes all.

Alpha Sigma Phi

The Alpha Sigs recognized their "Sweethearts" by a Christmas serenade complete with carols, Christmas scenes, a tree, and the traditional St. Nick. Following this the annual Christmas formal was held at South Hills country club. The second semester was started off with a father-son banquet at Schuster's followed by the traditional pledge dance at the New Castle country club.

The Alpha Sigs went on the field of intramural sports with the old "do or die" spirit. "Services" were held at the close of the basketball season with renewed spirit being displayed toward the oncoming softball season. Major and minor varsity sports found the Alpha Sigs taking an active part.

The closing major social event was the spring formal at Chartiers country club.

Our first year as a chapter of the Sigma Nu National Fraternity saw Epsilon Psi carry on in the old tradition of Kappa Phi Lambda, which celebrated its eighty-sixth anniversary on the campus. There were only a few Kaps left at Westminster after the actives and alumni were initiated into Sigma Nu at the joint ceremonies held last April.

The year showed the largest membership increase in the history of Kappa Phi Lambda and Sigma Nu. The pledge class, under the capable direction of Pledgemaster Don Salmar was the largest on campus, totaling forty-five young men, about half of whom saw service in the last war.

Our house parties for the year were events long to be remembered. The Christmas and Spring formals were especially something to remember. The Christmas formal, held in Greenville, was a huge success, due to the fine work of Don Magill and his assistants. Denny Royston is to be given credit for the arrangement of the Spring formal which was held at the Mahoning Country Club in Youngstown. "The G. I. Review," was our most successful house party of the year. Service uniforms, remnants of the last war, were the official dress of the evening and transportation was furnished by army trucks from New Castle.

The fine play of Cyril Krivosch, Walter Weilgus, and the Sample brothers, Harry and Ed, among others on the varsity football team was especially cited. Paul Shaeffer captained the soccer squad to a championship and Chuck Elgin, Art Shaffer, Joe Krakowski, Dick Borowicz and Alex Spisak were all regulars who played on the team. The chapter entered three fine basketball teams in the intramural league, and our active and pledge teams traveled to Bethany college to play the Sigma Nu chapter there. The Bethany chapter later returned the engagement on our campus, which helped to build fellowship among the two chapters.

In April of 1946, there were approximately 400 men on campus having no affiliation with any fraternity. For this reason, many of these men had no participation in school activities or government. Several men in this group recognized the need of an organization that would permit these students to have a voice whenever issues of student and student-administration relations were decided upon. Also it was felt that an organization of this type would create opportunity and desire for more extensive participation in campus activities.

A meeting was called for this group. Michael Baron was elected acting chairman. Much was done in the way of organization during the remainder of the year, but the greater part of the work had to wait for the following year.

In September, 1947, a membership drive was launched and the organization grew steadily. A ham roast was planned in October, and in November a social gathering in College Hall. Elections for regular officers were held and Stanley Hartung was elected President; Dick Cooper, Vice President; Richard Cole, Secretary; Lester Jones, Treasurer; and Dean Wheeler, Student Council Representative.

A dance was sponsored in January, with a weiner roast in April. Three men were sent to Iowa State College for the National Independent Students Association convention. At this time the local organization joined the National I. S. A. The semester was brought to a close with a banquet at Sharon, for all the members.

Quadrangle

Organized with a desire to speak for the non-sorority women on Westminster's campus, Quadrangle took part this year in a number of activities, ranging from publicizing a Homecoming queen candidate to sponsoring a party centered around superstitions.

In October Nancy Schwartz, Quadrangle's candidate for Homecoming Queen, rode around town on an autumn, leaf-decked throne in a hay wagon, throwing out apples for publicity. Small owls hooting, "Who? Nancy Schwartz," and ducks urging students not to duck the issue appeared on all conceivable tree trunks.

The fierce rain on the night of Friday 13th didn't dampen the spirits of Quadrangle members. It only added to the atmosphere of the all college party held at College hall. "Lucky 13" was the theme of the party, and those who attended started the evening by walking under a ladder.

Another event was the tea for freshmen girls in Ferguson hall, to introduce them to the organization and its members.

At Halloween we descended on Miss Alice Schuster, one of our sponsors. Her living room proved a good setting for telling ghost stories, but the biggest success of the evening was Miss Schuster's fortune telling. Not wishing to be partial, we were at Miss Barnhill's for our Christmas party.

After having won the volleyball tournament together with the other independent women, we competed for honors in the basketball tournament. Another dance date and our new freshman members will keep us busy for the rest of the year.

Quadrangle was under the guiding hand of Kay Roedema the first semester, and was succeeded by Beverly Birkholz as president. Other officers are Gloria Lorentz, vice-president; Jean Lewis, secretary; and June Hall, treasurer.

Often the passer-by has seen a girl in a white sweater, black skirt, and black string tie enter or leave a Victorian house. Perhaps, at that moment, she was busy with Autumn Weekend. There was the driving campaign for Homecoming Queen, only to arise the following day to decorate the front yard with balloons, crepe paper, and a merry-go-round. Maybe her head was filled with plans for the Thanksgiving dinner dance which brought together steak, carnations for the men's lapels, and a smooth orchestra. Or she could have been visualizing the rush parties, one with a navy theme, another a la Chinese atmosphere, and the big one as a supper club that had a floor show. Her thoughts were crowded by memories and things to come.

She's the girl who wears the pin of Alpha Gamma Delta, and this year she wore it well.

Beta Sigma Omicron

Decked out in a red corduroy jacket, polka-dot trousers, and a natty pair of black patent leather shoes, I've been in on every Beta Sig gathering this year — 'cause I'm "Beta," the Shafer House mascot.

When I say all the meetings, I mean when Lou swings the gavel and even the informal chats in the Beta Sig suite at Hillside. Let me tell you about some of the "doings" I've been in on. Of course I'm just a crusty old bachelor; but I sure held my own at the steak roast in the backyard last fall. I remember Rusty and Bill, Adele and Bob, Lydia and John, Jan and Karl, Julie and John, Becky and Dick, all of them were there. And that's the night I ate too many hamburgers, drank too much pop, and couldn't sleep a wink all night.

Next they had me commanding the "Queen" campaign for my "Nancy with the laughing face."

"Autumn Weekend" I was field general decorating the house as "Tell Me Why" and a booth in the gym in a violent ruby and pink. It was worth it. Everyone had a wonderful time and the rain didn't even bring on my rheumatism.

At Christmas I helped the McKnights and the Ellises chaperone the dinner-dance at Schusters; it was wonderful, dinner, dancing, and the Louis-Walcott fight.

The second semester I really felt out of place without that "new look." Turtle fixed everyone but me up in a blue skirt and white sweater—I'm still wearing polka-dots.

February was the month of cokes, coffee, prospective pledges, and finally ten new Betas.

March first Jean, Zaney, Betty, Jinx, Margie, Mary Eliza, and Dot came to me for my lecture to prospective teachers, "On the Painless Instruction of American Youth."

Now that I've told you some of my stories, you know what a riotous full-time job it is being "Beta," the Shafer house bachelor.

Chi Omega has been an active organization the past year with the biggest affair being the French Cabaret party. The decorations, clothes, and floorshow made the atmosphere seem like a real Parisian setting.

Not all of the sorority interests were directed toward parties. Lengthy, tiring practice sessions had their reward when the Chi O swimming team won the annual meet, carrying off the cup by breaking all but one of the pool records.

Summertime found us all together again, vacationing at M. L.'s cabin at Slippery Rock creek. When fall brought us back to Westminster, our first social event was a hayride out to Garrett's Lake. The KD's and Chi O's combined efforts and talents for a party at College hall before Christmas vacation. The Sun Valley Ski lodge theme certainly met with approval, and the party was an important move toward strengthening inter-sorority ties. On the following morning we had a pancake breakfast for all the sororities and Quadrangle. Over a hundred and twenty girls crowded into the house.

Active rush season began with two open houses and then the party for the rushees. Weeks of cutting, basting, sewing pounds and pounds of cotton, and suffering jabbed and sore fingers all proved worthwhile, for the stuffed animals were joyfully received by the rushees. Nine new pledges were welcomed into the sorority in February. In March, after the joint Chi O-Sig Kap pledge tea, the slumber party at the house meant little sleep that night for those with eight o'clocks the next morning. Chi Omega continues to be a busy sorority.

Officers are Jane Foster, president; Jean Bricker, vice president; Norma Hasselman, secretary; Jane Coleman, treasurer; Louise Vogt, pledge mistress; Margaret Swagler, personnel; Josie Hartman, corresponding secretary.

Kappa Delta

It's been a wonderful, wonderful year—and looking through our K. D. scrapbook our memories drift back to snatches of those songs which help to make us a real Kappa Delta.

"I'm a Kappa Delta girl, in a Kappa Delta whirl —" Roasting weiners at our first house party . . . homecoming weekend, getting up at 5:30 to paint footprints on the sidewalks, laughing when the kangaroo's head fell off . . . Student Council's carnival and our tall white chef hats, our "Coffee Cozy" . . . sleeping on the floor at the slumber party . . .

"She'll always wear the emerald and the pearl, for she's a K. D. girl—" Thirteen wonderful pledges . . . the fun we had at the party they planned . . . seeing them in our K. D. crew caps at the basketball games . . .

"Boy! What an appetite! She's a real Kappa Delta—" The wonderful spaghetti dinners at Barbe's . . . our annual picnic at Biberich's . . . our "smorgasbord" at the K.D.-Chi O "Ski Lodge" house party . . . pledge dinners and our annual Founder's Day dinner.

"When they turn the lights down low, dear, and I waltz again with you—" Soft music, tinsel, and sparkling Christmas tree lights at our formal at the Pines . . . our White Rose formal in the spring at the Castleton.

"As I look in my garden of dreams—" Yes, dreams of a perfect year . . . all of these things, the wonderful memories of all our good times together, are the things that make us so glad we are sisters!

"There's only one, one girl for me, and she's my Sigma K." Filled with the homecoming queen campaign, parties, pledging, Parent's Day activities, and the spring formal, this year was a memorable one for the Sigma Kappa girls.

With Chris and Barby leading the clan, Evie became our candidate for Homecoming queen . . . Esther headed the planning committee . . . and it was more routine than novelty to see Sig Kaps on campus at 5:30 a. m. . . publicizing the "queen of your heart" . . . open house for alumnae and house decorations completed our Homecoming week activities.

We were having wiener roasts, hayrides, and attending parties given by our patronesses . . . white and maroon flashed across campus as we made our debut in our new blazers.

"Tap, tap, tap your foot right out for Sigma K." Rushing claimed our attention next . . . rush parties, headed by Lois, were in the making . . . straw filled the house, and our clothes, as we entertained prospective members . . . and finally 13 new pledges swelled the ranks of Sigma K . . . "Scuff" took over as our new prexy . . . actives and pledges reminisced at the annual pajama party . . . and, with Winnie, Holly, and "Pearhead" in charge, a scavenger hunt highlighted our St. Patrick's Day party.

Pledges became actives . . . at an initiation dinner in May . . . plans progressed for Sing and Swing . . . and parents were entertained at a sorority luncheon on Parent's Day.

"Sigma Kap Man." May, along with its thoughts of summer and departure, brought out the Sig Kap girls and their escorts to the spring formal at the Castleton . . . patronesses, guests, and alumni danced to the music of Henry Barron and his orchestra.

And finally, semester finals and graduation rang down the curtain for 34 Sigma Kappa's.

Theta Upsilon

A YEAR WITH THETA U

Fall—This colorful season found the Theta U's busy welcoming back old friends on Homecoming Day. After a whirlwind campaign, we saw "Hidge" crowned Homecoming Queen at the Dance of the Year. Few of us will forget that wonderful, rain and all! The transition period from Fall to Winter was climaxed by a French cabaret at the "Cafe de Minuit."

Winter—December left memories of our Christmas "Kiddie Party" complete with "The Night Before Christmas," a big Christmas tree, and Chuckie's wonderful spaghetti. February "rushed" in and by the time March had blown around, we were able to honor our new pledges at our "Bunny Hop."

Spring—The climax of the year's social calendar was our annual formal at the New Castle field club. On the lighter side was the outdoor party in May.

Summer—Yes, it came quickly, but during vacation all of us have visions of the coming year and memories of the past. We will remember "Slossie," E. J., June, and Bobbie, for their work in Little Theater, Jackie playing the organ in chapel, Audrey as "Ideal Freshman Girl," and the fun Lois, Kathy, Janie, and Sweeney had comparing notes on student teaching. We're sad as we think of Kathy's broken ankle, but grins return as we remember "The Corner Act," the hayride that turned into a hike, and the costumes we wore to the "Come-as-you-are" party the patronesses had for us. We won't forget "Mo" as prexy, Holly's ever-ready subtle wit, and Mrs. Wilkie's wonderful understanding as house-mom.

1947-48—It's been a big year for Theta U!

Officers of Theta Upsilon include Shirley Morgan, president; Kathy Gehman, vice president; Mary Lou Hazen, secretary; and Lois Waite, treasurer.

Fourth row: Ann Hepler, Marilyn Barthels, Jane Moyer, Ida Falsetti, Margaret Scull.

Third row: Charmaine Hazen, Jane McKnight, Helen Sloss, Jean Clark, Kay Campbell, Darryl Downy, June Graham.

Second row: Joan Henry, Gloria Jenzer, Meredith Brown, Mrs. Elizabeth Wilkinson, E. J. Smith, Hilda Stockhausen, Betty Hamilton.

Organized in 1942 as Sceptre, this sophomore women's honorary became a member of Cwens, the national, in 1946. Members are chosen at the end of their freshman year on a basis of personality, character, activity, and scholarship.

The ten present members have sponsored a highly successful Crown and Sceptre formal in the medieval castle known commonly as the gym, and a Leap Year dance at College hall, besides serving as aides at the freshman reception and the faculty banquet. The project for this year's group was the purchase of additional silver for the Ferguson hall tea set.

Officers of the group include E. J. Smith, president; Phyllis Ackerly, vice president; Jan Cuthbert, treasurer; Nancy Henderson, secretary; and social chairman, Lois Matthews. Advisors are Miss Miriam Hawkins and Miss Helen Sittig.

Pan-Hellenic Council

Alpha, beta, gamma, delta—the members of Pan-hellenic council know their Greek alphabet as well as you know your a, b, c's.

The Pan-hel group is one of the busiest at Westminster. It is an organization composed of twelve girls, two representatives from each of the six national sororities on campus. These girls formulate rushing rules and issue the freshman sorority handbooks. Every year they sponsor the annual tea for freshmen to introduce rush week.

The Council's main purpose is to promote friendliness and cooperation among the sororities, and to work out the troubles and problems of all and each cooperatively.

Lou Cummings prexied the group this year. Alice Mae Smith served as vice-president, Shirley Morgan, secretary, and Mary Louise Cleland, treasurer.

Alpha Iota is an honorary business fraternity for secretarial science majors at Westminster college. Any student who has taken twelve hours of commercial studies and made a B average is eligible to be voted into the organization by the present members.

At the meetings which are held the second Tuesday and fourth Thursday of each month, plans are made for outside speakers who are qualified to explain business practices, to hold a discussion period with the group. Members also intend to present educational movies and invite the entire secretarial science department.

Before the close of the spring semester, the organization visited a business office in New Castle to see a sound-scriber, which is similar to a dictaphone, and other business machines.

Miss Arlene Rischer, secretarial science instructor, who is the group's advisor, held a pre-Christmas party at her home.

Officers are Rosamond Smith, president; Lois Waite, vice president; Marilyn Thomas, secretary; Betty Fair, treasurer.

Kappa Delta Pi

Readin' and 'riting and 'rithmetic! The three R's present no problem to the members of Kappa Delta Pi. These future school teachers meet the third Thursday of every month to discuss problems and advances in the education field.

Kappa Delta Pi, national education honorary, has for its purpose the encouragement of high scholastic standards and the recognition of outstanding contributions to education.

Delta Mu chapter, founded at Westminster on May 7, 1937, has Dr. E. C. Shortt for its counselor. Lois Jack, as president led the meetings, and she was aided by vice president, Alice May Smith. Katherine Gehman, secretary, recorded the meeting, while Lois Waite, treasurer, collected the dues.

Requirements for membership are an all-college scholastic average of B; completion of six hours of psychology and education for juniors, twelve hours for seniors; and registration in the education department.

The spring banquet, in honor of the practice teachers, climaxes the activities for Kappa Delta Pi. The seniors, as "experienced" teachers speak of their trials and tribulations as student teachers. Each year at commencement, a scholarship is presented to the sophomore who has done the most outstanding work in education.

Scroll

Scroll was organized on Westminster's campus as an English honorary society. This organization requires at least twelve hours of English with a B average in all English courses, and evidence of a serious interest in literature for membership.

Organized to promote a greater interest in writing and in literary appreciation, Scroll collects books of western Pennsylvanian authors, and entertains authors and speakers from the art courses.

Club officers include John Pollock, president; Nancy Schmidt, vice president; Pat Marshall, secretary; Kay Roedema, treasurer.

Mu Phi Epsilon

Westminster's Phi Omega chapter of Mu Phi Epsilon is one of the newest members of the professional music sorority. It was installed on April 6, 1946, when it changed to national status, from the local music sorority, Theta Gamma Mu.

Mu Phi is an outstanding national organization with many celebrated members. The local chapter carries on regular meetings and sponsors a party for freshman music majors every fall. At this informal get-together the freshman girls learn about the activities and aims of the sorority and the requirements for membership. Included in the requirements are an all-college average of "B" and consideration of character, poise, and personality.

A recital-tea was given in January in honor of Mrs. Ruth Row Clutcher, national second vice president, who spent a few days with the group. Mrs. Clutcher observed several of the group's meetings and talked to the girls about all the work that is being done by other Mu Phi women all over the nation.

On April 5 a recital was presented to the college by Phi Omega chapter. The theme used was "Through the Years with Music," and the numbers heard were from the classic through the modern music periods. This recital was a sample of the work that the group had accomplished in their major field during the year.

Delta Nabla, honorary mathematics fraternity, was founded in 1928 at Westminster.

Its purpose is to foster interest in mathematics and to recognize outstanding students in mathematics.

Delta Nabla's membership is limited to a maximum of ten students. Those students who are eligible are those who have a "B" average in at least ten hours of mathematics and an acceptable general average.

Each year Delta Nabla presents to the freshman who is most outstanding in mathematics a book on a mathematical subject.

Officers are Frank Lloyd, president; S. E. Babbitt, vice-president; Joyce Coleman, secretary-treasurer.

Tau Kappa Alpha

A new red corduroy hat perched on Mel Moorhouse's head and the student body knows that Tau Kappa Alpha, national honorary debate fraternity, has resumed its activities. The hat is one of the requirements TKA members have set for their debate manager.

Twice a month the debaters meet to discuss their speeches and plan for inter-collegiate debates. The international debate question this year was "Should a Federal World Government Be Established?"

Coached by Mr. Moorhouse, the debaters sponsored a pre-season debate clinic. Among the colleges invited for the clinic were Mt. Mercy, Allegheny, Geneva, and Slippery Rock.

Public debates were sponsored at New Bedford Grange, Mahoning Valley Grange, College Club of New Castle, Thursday Club of New Wilmington, and the World Federation, New Castle.

Debaters remember the time they attended an inter-collegiate debate at Washington and Jefferson college, and heard Glenn Reed brag about never having a flat tire. Luck was against him, for they had two flat tires on that trip, one while going to the college and another on their return trip.

Few will forget the "broadcast," when four members debated the question "Should Undergraduates Marry" for 25 minutes over WKST, only to find that there was a break in the line and they were speaking into a dead mike.

Members of the debate team attended the state tournament sponsored by the Debating Association of Pennsylvania Colleges at Allegheny college, for the purpose of determining the winner in the oratorical and debate divisions.

Requirements for eligibility into TKA are participation in ten debates of which four must be won. Members are initiated into the organization at an annual dinner at Schuster's.

Officers are John Kerensky, president; Lou Cummings, secretary; Pat Hadley, treasurer.

Phi Alpha Theta

Alpha Xi chapter of Phi Alpha Theta had its beginning several years ago as a history club. It became a member of the national history honorary when the local chapter was installed by the Beta Chapter of the University of Pittsburgh on April 16, 1946. Phi Alpha Theta has reached the highest goal, that of being a member of the Association of College Honor Societies.

In April of 1947 Phi Alpha Theta had the honor of being host on Westminster's campus to Washington and Jefferson's new chapter of Phi Alpha Theta. Dr. Sweet of the European history department at Washington and Jefferson College was the speaker.

Westminster's chapter of Phi Alpha Theta has been a very active one. A trip was taken by the members to Harmony, Pennsylvania, an historical site. This group has entertained various speakers at the regular meetings throughout the year.

Requirements for membership are twelve hours of history with no grade lower than a B in history courses. Members must also have an all college average of B.

Initiation was held on April 24 for the new members for 1948-1949. The ritualistic ceremony was followed by a dinner at the Tavern.

Officers for the term 1947-1948 are president, Lois Jack; vice president, Dave Cornelius; secretary, Mary Lou Lash; treasurer, Margery Cruikshank. The advisor of Alpha Xi Chapter is Dr. Schuster.

Third row: Margaret Trevitt, Peggy Pigman, Carolyn Stephenson, Lou Cummings, Mary Lou Hazen, Margery Boyd.

Second row: Jane Coleman, Louise Rubino, Mary Alice Stewart, Jean Basher, Mary Elizabeth Stewart, Gloria Jenzer, Betty Hamilton.

First row: Lois Kolb, Mary Louise Cleland, Jean Calhoun, Carolyn King, Janice Lago, Jean Leighty, Jean Roberts.

"The purpose of this organization shall be to promote athletics, to create a love of sports, and to foster the ideal of good sportsmanship." These are the ideals of the Women's Athletic association of Westminster college.

Almost every afternoon one might see prospective members playing basketball in order to earn the necessary points required for entrance into W. A. A. To be eligible for admission a girl must have earned a total of one hundred points in one sport. Ten points are given for each hour's participation in the sport. After earning the required points, the girl must pass a test on the constitution of W. A. A. Once a member, she must retain an average of fifty points per semester to remain in the organization.

The regular meeting of W. A. A. is held the second Tuesday of each month in the gym. The sixty-two members have as their officers Carolyn King, president; Jean Calhoun, vice president; Mary Lou Lash, secretary, and Shirley Morgan, treasurer. Mrs. Donna Mae Sheridan is the advisor for the organization.

A large "W" is awarded to those deserving women who have been in the organization for at least two years, who have made team points in at least three different sports, and who have earned one thousand points in athletics.

Pi Sigma Pi

Pi Sigma Pi, honorary society, is the local equivalent to Phi Beta Kappa, which is nationally famous.

Purely a scholastic organization, Pi Sigma Pi's requirement for eligibility is an all-college average of 2.4. No more than 15 per cent of the senior class may join. Those on the faculty who belong to Phi Beta Kappa or Pi Sigma Pi are honorary members.

The organization has two annual projects. Honors Convocation recognizes, in a chapel service, all the students who have received a scholastic average of 2.5 or better for the semester. This year almost 300 students were honored. The Book Drive, held each spring, is the second project. The goal of the latter is to contact students and alumni who will help by contributing to the library.

It is the ambition of this group to become a chapter of Phi Beta Kappa, and they are working toward meeting the requirements of this goal.

Officers are Matthew Brown, president; Dave Cornelius, vice president; Mary Lou Sands, secretary; and Delores Russell, treasurer.

Political Science Forum

The Political Science Forum was organized during the fall of 1947 for the purpose of stimulating an interest in current national and international problems of government.

The membership is limited to students who have completed, or who are enrolled in a political science course.

The meetings of the Forum are open to the faculty and student body who may participate in the discussion of the topic before the organization.

During 1947-48 there were discussions on "The Marshall Plan," "Universal Military Training," "Tax Reduction," and "The Taft-Hartley Labor Act."

Members of the Forum served on the executive committee for the Mock Republican Nominating Convention held April 6, 7 and 8, and were responsible for many of the preparations that contributed to its success.

Harry S. Manley, assistant professor of political science, is the faculty advisor for the organization.

Argo

Fourth row: Jean Clark, Charles Hamilton, Arthur Shaffer, Alexander MacMorris, Frank Ruth, Jane Moyer.
 Third row: Mary Mauro, Lois Waite, Elizabeth Knox, Irene Ganzlmar, Carolyn Mullin, Margery Irwin.
 Second row: Nancy Schmidt, Nancy Horn, E. J. Smith, Sophie Kulbak, Margaret Scull, Maryellen Cipolla, Evalyn Dart.
 First row: Ralph Zahniser, Kay Roedema, Peggy Morris, Len Harding, James Oravetz, Lydia Zahariou, Norma Hasselman.

The Argo was founded in 1904 by the senior class and was published the next year by the junior class. The pioneering staff chose the name Argo for the book because they hoped that it might aid them just as the original Argo had given hope to Jason who ventured into unknown waters in his search for the Golden Fleece.

The Argo is edited by a group of competent campus journalists carefully selected from the standpoint of merit. Each succeeding year the editors endeavor to produce a book which better represents the broadening curriculum and activities of the college. Before the war the Argo had made steady development and progress in the journalistic field; it had also become a member of the National Scholastic Press Association and had attained All-America rating. The staff is hoping to put this yearbook back on a pre-war basis now that material difficulties are at a minimum.

At the beginning of each year the staff decides the theme to be used on the book. Pictures are taken of basketball games, dances, sorority parties, and campus buildings and then the literary editors have their staffs write articles on campus organizations. The advertising staff gathers ads, and layouts are set up. When the Argo has been sent to press and final exams are in view the members of the editorial staff are honored with keys given at the Pi Delta Epsilon dinner.

First published as a literary magazine in 1884, the Holcad, which takes its name from a Greek news ship, proudly exhibits nine consecutive All-American ratings in its McGill library newsroom. With a keen eye for college news, the staff turns out its now famous editorials, cartoons, and columns in one heroic effort on Thursday nights. With the help of Mr. Burns and a brand new office at the Globe, the Holcad hits the Quadrangle Friday evening.

The staff, which is open to anyone with an active interest in writing and reporting, is headed by Ralph Zahniser, editor; Kay Roedema, managing editor; Peggy Bremner and Lydia Zahariou, news editors; Peggy Morris and Nancy Lewis, feature editors; Doris McQuigg, copy editors; Martha Kilgore, society editor; Len Harding, sports editor; Jim Oravetz, business manager.

Scrawl

Second row: Nancy Horn, Hilda Stockhausen, Lou Cummings, Margaret Scull, Nancy Schmidt, and Deris Masse

Scrawl, the campus literary magazine has been published twice yearly since the spring of 1939. At first sponsored by Scroll, English honorary, the publication is now headed independently with Miss Martha Barnhil and Dr. Myrta McGinnis as advisors.

Staffs are elected every spring and fall, and each issue has a theme. A contrast of the post-war writers of two wars was the basis for the Fall, 1947 issue, edited by Ross Jones, with Wally Abel as managing editor. Peggy Morris headed the Spring edition with its "Tomorrow" theme and brand new format. Roger Hawk was managing editor.

A publicity department was added this year, with Nancy Horn as director, and an art department was organized under Robert O'Melia. Ida Falsetti has been business manager for both issues. Associate editors for the spring issue included Gen Taber, Lou Cummings, and Margaret Scull.

Two prizes are awarded to outstanding authors in each issue.

"30" Club

Middlerow: Dolores Brletic, Margaret Bremner, Margaret Lawrence, Kay Roedema, Doris McQuigg, Maryellen Cipolla, Elsie Holt.

Front row: Doris Masse, Al Waugaman, Margaret Scull, Lydia Zahariou, Arthur Shaffer, Peggy Morris, Len Harding.

Organized in the spring of 1947 as a club for all interested journalism majors, Westminster's "30" Club chose a familiar copywriter's symbol as its title. Completion of 24 weeks of college journalism courses is the one requirement for membership in the group, which meets twice monthly.

Sponsorship of the annual Journalism Day, when high school students interested in the field are entertained here by college journalism majors, was the club's first activity last year. This year Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism honorary, joined with the "30" club in co-sponsorship of the event, which featured an address by Cy Hungerford, well-known Pittsburgh cartoonist. Jim Oravetz was general chairman of the committee.

The hilarious farce and variety show, "Four Men on a Beat," was presented in an effort to aid the club project, installation of a news wire service in the News Bureau. Under the direction of Roger Hawk the show played to a capacity audience and contributed over half the funds needed. The club has inaugurated a system of points awarded to active campus journalists who are honored at a publications banquet in the spring. The purchase of a wire recorder completed this year's purchases of journalistic equipment.

The club's first formal initiation was held in April.

Election of officers is held every semester. Charter officers included Lydia Zahariou, president; Art Shaffer, secretary; Margaret Scull, treasurer. Present officers are Art Shaffer, president; Peggy Morris, vice president; Alan Brettell, secretary; Al Waugaman, treasurer. Miss Elizabeth Nixon is faculty advisor.

Pi Delta Epsilon

Pi Delta Epsilon, the national journalism fraternity on campus, was installed at Westminster, May 8, 1934, with the goal of promoting greater interest in the field of journalism and serving as advisor to campus publications.

Membership in the fraternity is gained through active participation in a publication plus a managerial position. The Holcad, Argo, and Scrawl contribute new members each year.

The basketball Dope Sheet was edited and sold through Pi Delt. In co-operation with the "30" Club, Pi Delt co-sponsored the annual Journalism Day held for high school students of western Pennsylvania and eastern Ohio.

Officers are Len Harding, president; Nancy Lewis, secretary; and Phyllis Hall, treasurer.

Y. M. C. A.

Second row: Frank Davidson, George Smith, Glenn Hartman, Bob Boone, Frank Jones, Ross Byers, Bob Noble.
Third row: John Vandling, Stan Hartung, Bob Hinman, Dave Gillespie, Bill McClelland.

On Wednesday evening the members of YMCA meet at Browne hall lounge for their weekly session under Bob Ranck, president.

This year topics up for discussion were the marriage relations problems presented by members of the faculty. YMCA triangle "Body, Mind, Spirit" was discussed by Dr. Blanche Carrier of the psychology department and the Rev. George Myers of the local United Presbyterian church. "Spiritual Emphasis Week—What Next?" was discussed following the week of prayer with the Rev. Harry J. Hager in February. A film showing the history of YMCA, "Men of Tomorrow," was shown in March.

YMCA held several joint meetings with YW as well as a joint swimming party in April.

In the spring two debates on a very timely subject for Westminster students on "Universal Military Training" and "Our Compulsory Chapel Attendance" were presented by the officers, besides a panel discussion on "Science and Religion—Is There a Conflict?"

After the spring vacation there was an election and installation of officers for the following year. They prepared the Prayer meeting of the final week. Officers are Bob Ranck, president; Louis Barnhart, vice president; Jim Millen, secretary-treasurer; Joseph Hopkins, advisor.

Karux

 Middle row: Kenneth Stewart, Robert Fields, Frank Jones, Harold Byers, Richard Taylor, Fred McKnight, Robert Noble.

Karux, the honorary fraternity for all pre-ministerial students on Westminster's campus, plays an outstanding part in religious activities.

During the past year the members presented one of the most successful chapel programs ever given, a take off on Shakespeare's "Othello." Later in the semester they held a dinner at the Grange which probably will become an annual affair. Toastmaster at this first gathering was Renny Jackson, a pre-ministerial student from Erie. The Rev. Soerheide of Slippery Rock spoke to an audience of forty-five pre-ministerial men and honorary members of Karux.

Honorary members are Dr. John Orr, Dr. W. J. H. McKnight, Dr. Wayne H. Christy, Joseph M. Hopkins, and Robert C. Kelly.

Dr. Orr holds an open house at his home in New Wilmington each spring to increase the social fellowship among members of Karux.

Songs and guest speakers are included in the Karux business meetings which are held every other Monday night, and informative material to help aspirant ministers is distributed to the members.

Experiencing a tremendous surge of growth, the group now numbers 41, whereas in 1945 there were only two members in the organization.

Officers are John Vandling, president; John Rock, vice president; Fred McKnight, secretary-treasurer; Bob Field, chaplain.

Life Service

 Second row: Peggy Jean Townsend, Gloria Jenzer, Nancy Shane, Carolyn Stephenson, Jean Burt, Lou Cummings, Lois Gittings.
 Third row: Jim Hodges, Louise Hendricks, Lynn Leary, Rachel Ann Miller, Julie Anderson, Bob Field.
 Fourth row: Bob Noble, Jim Millen, Bill McClelland, Glenn Hartman, John Rock, Frank Jones, Rcss Byers.

The Life Service group was founded on this campus in the spring of 1944. Membership is open to any student who wishes to dedicate his life to the service of Christ, regardless of his life work. The aims of this organization are to serve now, to grow spiritually, and to train for effective future Christian service in the home, in the church, and in the business world.

Life Service is the only student organization whose main sphere of work is off campus. This group sponsors the weekly Wednesday evening prayer groups in the dormitories, the consecration and prayer service after the Sabbath evening chapel service, weekend caravans to churches in the district, gospel teams, and sends entertainment to nearby children's homes, shut-ins, and homes for the aged.

Regular meetings are not held. Instead, meetings are held only when a definite need arises to train the members in some particular phase of Christian service. These meetings are held in the form of a workshop period. Two of these periods were conducted by Dr. Blanche Carrier, who taught the group how to prepare Sabbath school lessons.

Few Life Service members will forget the religious retreat that was held in Seneca Hills near Franklin, Pennsylvania, in the fall.

Officers are Robert Hinman, president; Flora Van Dyke, secretary; Charles Gensheimer, treasurer.

Christian Youth Fellowship

 Second row: Frank Davidson, Hazel Potter, Lois Gittings, Myra Reichert, Jean Burt, Alice Johnston, Marjorie Cruikshank, Rosamund Smith, Jim Hodges.
 Third row: Jim Millen, Peggy Jean Townsend, Mary Lou Lash, Ann Hepler, Flora Zoe Van Dyke, Nancy Shane, Carolyn Stephenson, Frank Jones.
 Fourth row: Duff Brown, Ray Dunlap, Julie Anderson, Lynn Leary, Louise Hendricks, Rachel Ann Miller, Glenn Hartman, John Vandling, Bob Field.
 Fifth row: Bob Boone, Stan Hartung, Bob Ranck, John Pollock, Charles Gensheimer, Bill McClelland, John Rock.

Every Sunday the spotlight is on Christian Youth Fellowship at 6:20 p. m. in the Little Theatre. This all college organization is the only one that offers both spiritual and social activities.

Highlights of the spiritual programs were the Inspirational meeting, lead by Maryann Rehm, whose topic was "The Hand of God"; Professor James Evans' "Music as an Approach to God"; the series of lectures on Personal Evangelism with Rev. George Myers talk on "Personal Devotion." Bob Mastro, a member of the Intervarsity Christian Fellowship, told members of "Christ on Campus."

A Singspiration as the final meeting climaxed the year's program.

A hayride opened the social activities for the organization. In addition to special parties, CYF sponsors a social activity each month. These include bowling and swimming. Each of the socials carry a theme. One of the outstanding of these was the advertising party. Here each member was to come representing a particular commercial or advertisement.

Requirements for membership into the organization include an active participation in both spiritual and social programs and regular attendance at the Sunday evening meetings.

The battle between Don Davis' "Blue Boosters," and Glenn Hartman's "Go-Getters," during the membership drive, quickened the interest of CYF members and drew new ones to the meetings.

Spiritual adviser for CYF is Robert Kelly. Officers are Bob Noble, president; Bob Hinman, vice-president; Adele Johnston, corresponding secretary; E. J. Smith, recording secretary; Ross Byers, treasurer; John Vandling, Student Council representative.

Target

Target was organized on Westminster's campus in the fall of 1933 as a senior women's honorary society. Target not only recognizes scholarship, but also leadership in campus activities and character. It is not just membership in campus activities but a real contribution to the campus through these activities and cooperation in upholding Westminster's standards and ideals.

Members are selected from the junior women having a scholastic average of B, and who are active leaders in campus activities.

Target is proud of its achievements and high standards which conform to those of the National senior women's fraternity, Mortar Board.

The honorary has in the past sponsored many activities on campus, among which were furnishing the browsing room of the library, sponsoring a tutoring bureau, publishing an all-college song book, sponsoring style shows, rummage sales, spaghetti dinners, and other minor activities.

This year Target held their traditional party for freshman women. It was a pajama party with Target members presenting a skit to acquaint frosh with Target and to stimulate interest in scholarship and activities. In December, Target held a tea for all junior women. Target joined with Cwens in acting as hostesses for the open house after the Homecoming football game. Target sponsors Tap Day in the spring when those on the Honor Roll are recognized in chapel and those chosen for membership in campus honoraries are tapped.

Target's officers are Peggy Pigman, president; Mary Alice Stewart, vice president; Margery Cruikshank, treasurer; Lois Jack, historian; Alice May Smith.

Red Cross

Second row: Frank Ruth, and Stanley Hartung.

The Westminster unit of the Red Cross College Unit chapter was founded in May, 1947 with Ralph Lufkin as chairman and Mrs. Irving Mansell as sponsor. The unit operates in conjunction with the New Castle Red Cross.

As projects during the past year, the unit took two college shows, "Three Kisses" and an all-college variety show to the Deshon Veterans Hospital in Butler. First Aid and Motor Corps classes were also sponsored during the year.

The main project was a notebook drive during March. The purpose of the drive was to get notebooks and writing equipment to be sent to underprivileged students in Europe.

Two of the members, Louise Rubino and Frank Ruth, were sent as delegates to the Red Cross College Unit convention at Washington, D. C. in February. There they participated in class discussions on ways of improving the college units.

The officers elected for the 1948-1949 school year are President, Frank Ruth; Vice-President, Edna McCuen; and Secretary-Treasurer, Flora Van Dyke.

Outing Club

The Outing club founded in 1938 by a group of outdoor-minded co-eds sponsor many activities on campus. The Club opened their membership drive and held their first activity of the year in the fall with a hike to College Woods. All those attending enjoyed the breakfast immensely, but they decided that 5:30 in the morning was not the most ideal time to get up.

Scarecrows and black witches invaded the gym on October 24! Yes, the Outing Club was sponsoring its annual Harvest Dance. Doughnuts and cider also added to the Halloween atmosphere.

The members of the Outing club started something entirely new this year when they decided to bowl every other Friday afternoon. Two groups were organized with Ann Osterhout and Alice Aiken as captains of the teams.

Another hike was conducted in the spring, and this "Coed Hike" was very successful.

All those interested in the Outing club are called "heelers" until they have earned enough points by attending meetings, bowling, and participating in activities sponsored by the club, at which time they become active members.

The officers for 1947-1948 are Shirley Morgan, president; Phyllis Ackerly, vice president; Carolyn Stephenson, secretary; Mary Hulse, treasurer.

Psychology Club

The Psychology Club got off to a good start by having an informal get-together for all majors the first week of school. Dean Nelson, president, introduced all of the new members and we all got to know Mr. Robert S. Carter, the new professor in psychology.

During the year the club sponsored trips for various psychology classes to several mental hospitals and state institutions. Educational Psychology classes went to other schools to observe classroom relationships. Many professional people came to the campus and spoke to the members on various kinds of psychological work. The members also had the privilege of seeing many movies illustrating different phases of psychological study.

Next year, the Psychology Club hopes to establish Psi-Chi, a national honorary for Psychology majors, on campus.

Officers for 1947-48 were seniors Dean Nelson, President; Kathy Gehman, Secretary; juniors, Beverly Birkholz, treasurer; and Joan Cox, Social Chairman.

Masquers

Masquers, Westminster's honorary dramatic fraternity, was organized in 1930 by Dr. Albert T. Cordray.

Membership in this honorary is limited to thirty and is a coveted honor. It is earned through specific work in acting, stagecraft, or dramatic writing. The purpose of Masquers is to stimulate interest in dramatic work and to reward outstanding work done by drama students.

The motto of the fraternity is "Totes Mundi Agit Histrionem" which means "All the world plays the actor." This saying was used by the Globe theater of Shakespeare's day. The symbol of the fraternity is a silver key, the left side of which is a comic mask representing Thalia, the goddess of comedy; the right side is a tragic mask representing Melpomene, the goddess of tragedy. The sword between the two represents history binding life with tragedy and comedy. The ideal of Masquers is the perfect actor.

Each year an "Oscar" is awarded to the best actor and actress. This year's winners were Bruce Catt and Helen Sloss. These selections are made by a faculty committee and are announced at commencement.

It is a tradition that the members of Masquers present a play each year. This year they presented the premiere of Margaretta Scott Lawler's "The Three Kisses." Social activities included a costume party for freshman speech majors and a reception for Ruth Draper. Highlight of the closing year was "Masquerade," produced in the community hall. A variety show, it put the campus' strongest honorary on its feet financially.

Chemistry

Recently organized for the purpose of stimulating interest in chemistry, the Chemistry club is under the directorship of its officers, Harold Hassel, president; Harry Gilbert, vice president; and Pat Johnson, secretary. Dr. Haas is faculty advisor.

It was decided by the twenty five active members to set four hours of chemistry as the requirement for admittance into the club.

The club plans to further the interest of chemistry by showing the practical aspects, opportunities for further work, and the future of chemistry. They have thus far tried to foster an interest in chemistry in industry by making a visit to the Shenango Pottery company in New Castle. The club hopes to make more trips of this type and to have lecturers brought before the group.

The Chemistry club sponsored a Christmas tea for the department. They held the affair in the chemistry lab room, and beakers and flasks were uniquely used for tea and ice cream containers.

Westminster Radio Workshop

Front row: E. J. Smith, Glenn Reed, Phyllis Williams, Karl Moll, Maryanne Rehm, Lew Shirey, Shirley McKinney.

This year the former Westminster Radio Workshop was divided into two groups. The intermediate group has adopted the name Collegian Guild of the Air (CGA), and the advanced group has retained the former title of WRW.

Forty members of WRW have the job of handling the actual broadcasting of college programs over the air. Each person in this group is assigned to a specific task. Announcers are Karl Moll, Glenn Reed, Lewis Shirey, John Regule, Bruce Catt, and Bill Dumbaugh.

At the present time one program is broadcast weekly over WPIC, although plans are in the making for two weekly broadcasts. In the past these programs have consisted mostly of selected musical presentations, but this year dramatic programs were stressed. Some of the presentations included a musical program by Ruth Taggart and Howdie Edgar, a concert by the Four Statesmen, musical selections by Roger Jarvis' orchestra, a piano program by Edwin Good, and "The Strange Mystery of Marie de Champignelle," which was directed by Janet Kellar.

Many advances have been made by the group this year. Included in this progress are the addition of sound effects and mood music to the radio library, a radio line from the college chapel so that special chapel programs can be broadcast, and also the recording of a series of thirteen programs consisting of original musical compositions written by Joseph Hopkins, professor of Bible. These recordings will be broadcast over Sharon's WPIC-FM.

Every Wednesday evening in Ferguson hall lounge YWCA gets together for its weekly meeting with Shirley Morgan, president, and her cabinet planning the programs.

Some of the highlights of their campus activities this year include talks by faculty members and visiting lecturers. Westminster's former president, Dr. Robert Galbreath gave his annual talk on "Dream Girl" which was a joint YW-YM meeting presented before a capacity crowd at the chapel. Such subjects as "Personal Expression through Music" by Joseph Hopkins of the Bible department, and the "Meaning of Lent on Ash Wednesday" by Dr. W. J. H. McKnight, college pastor, were discussed. Mr. Burns, editor of the Globe, gave us some interesting inside information of the local community.

It has always been a YWCA tradition to help freshman girls to become better acquainted with upperclass women. This year YW again sponsored the "Big and Little Sister" picnic this fall at Garrett lake. There was also the candlelight chapel installation with the reception of a hundred freshman girls. At Thanksgiving time twelve of our members put on the "My Country 'Tis of Thee" pageant.

Besides campus events, YW also sponsored several missionary projects. Knitting and sewing clothes for the children of Frenchburg, Tenn., along with writing to the boys and girls at the United Presbyterian home were their chief projects.

Officers are Shirley Morgan, president; Flora Van Dyke, vice president; Jean Garvin, secretary; Mrs. W. J. Harper McKnight, advisor.

The Westminster Radio Workshop was divided into two groups in the fall of 1947 with the founding of the Collegian's Guild of the Air as an organization for those beginning fundamentals of announcing, directing, technical work, and actual participation in radio scripts. Miss Helen Cushman served as advisor.

CGA is open to any student of the college who is interested in radio work and who can meet certain requirements. The group meets every Tuesday at 7:00 p. m. in the radio studios of the McGill Memorial library. Membership is limited to 40 members and upon receiving points accrued through active participation, members are eligible to the advanced WRW group if there is a vacancy.

The officers of CGA upon its founding were President, Frank Ruth; Vice President, Margery Cruikshank; Secretary, Ruth Vogan; Treasurer, Judy Wilkinson; and Recorder, Bill Sample.

Student Council found itself in the midst of activities this year. This highest legislative body of student government, whose purpose is to control student conduct and activities, was fairly buzzing with "new business."

The Council is composed of three representatives from each class, as well as one representative from each campus organization. The presiding officers this year were Ted Holt, president; Chuck Book, vice president; Betty Fair, secretary, and Duff Brown, treasurer.

Student Council's largest and most spectacular undertaking was "Autumn Weekend" on October 17, 18, 19. The Weekend was a swirl of autumn leaves, swishing gowns, gold cups, and multi-colored streamers. At the "Dance of the Year" on Friday night of the Weekend, "Hidge" Stockhausen, was crowned Homecoming Queen. Homecoming decoration awards were given out at half-time at the game on Saturday amid a flurry of excited screams. The gym vibrated on Saturday night with the calls of peanut vendors and side show barkers, for it was carnival night. The weekend as a whole held an exciting atmosphere on campus.

Among its other activities, Student Council had charge of freshman Hell Week. This special event was crowned by turning many a freshman a shade greener on Tribunal Night.

Westminster Shares was another outstanding project which met with much approval from both faculty and students.

Aside from social activities Student Council devoted much time in the interest of student welfare. The council made possible the granting of early vacations and other important projects were undertaken in the view of student betterment. An active year and an active Student Council!

Interfrat Council

Standing: Jack McDaniel, Donald Eichenlaub, Joseph Demcise, and Pete Moran.

The Interfraternity Council, composed of three representatives from each of the three fraternities on campus, was organized to regulate rushing and promote friendliness among the Greek organizations.

This year's council has been active in revising the Interfraternity constitution and systematizing rushing to meet the problems of increased enrollment. In order to accomplish this, the council has studied the rush systems of other small colleges and compared these with our own.

The fraternity having the highest scholastic average over two semesters is awarded a scholarship cup by the council at the Honors Convocation each year. Sigma Nu fraternity this year received this honor. An interfraternity formal is sponsored annually by the group. This year it was held in May at the New Castle Field club.

Officers include Russ Herrscher, president; Don Salman, vice president; Tom Bailey, secretary-treasurer. Faculty advisor is Dr. W. J. H. McKnight.

Senate, women's governing body on campus, had a year full of activities. Aside from making laws and judging cases, Senate found time to enter whole-heartedly into the swing of campus capers.

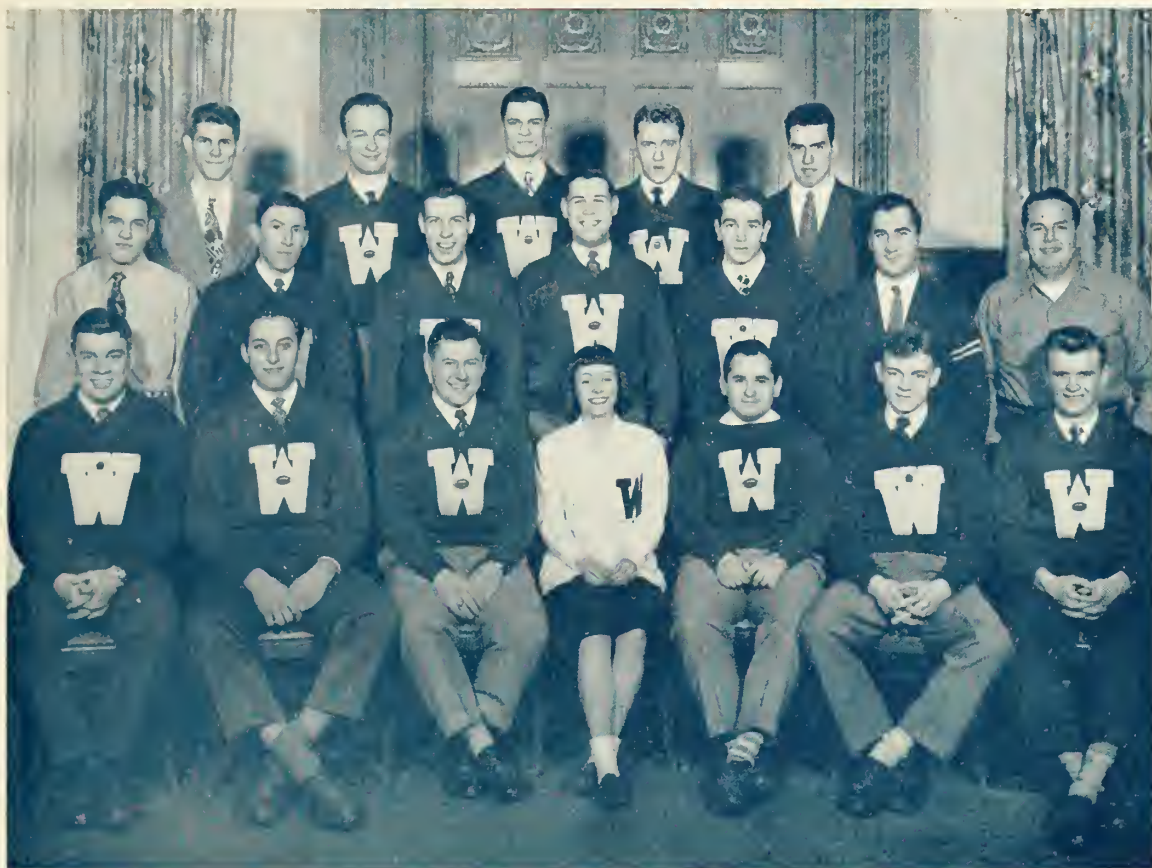

Under the leadership of Alice May Smith, and her assistant officers, Margery Cruikshank, vice president; Nancy Lewis, secretary, and Norma Hasselman, treasurer, Senate was underway full speed.

Senate membership includes two freshmen, two sophomores, three juniors and three seniors elected by all college women.

Senate began its activities with a party for freshman women early in the fall. This party, in harmony with the Dessert Bridge held at Ferguson hall, helped acquaint the freshman women more fully with the organization and its functions.

One of the outstanding all-college functions which Senate sponsored was a midnight movie. This was of special significance for it afforded the women 2 a. m. permission.

After an eventful season of intercollegiate football and basketball, Block W men are still an ever-present attraction on campus. They can be recognized at a glance; for the blue sweater and blocked-white "W" are unmistakable.

Organized in 1936, the club which is made up of twenty-one football and basketball varsity lettermen promotes and encourages college athletic activities.

Block "W" boasting was promoted at their semi-formal dance, "Titan Turkey Bowl." Ann Hope, senior commercial teaching major from Pittsburgh, was crown Block "W" Queen. In keeping with the season, Ann was crowned with a wreath of yellow chrysanthemums. The dance was held November 21, in the gym with couples dancing to the strains of Sammy Monte and his orchestra.

This year's officers were Jack McDaniel, president; James Ross, vice president; and Tom Jones, secretary-treasurer.

Mermaids, under the able leadership of the president Shirley Morgan and advisor, Mrs. Donna Mae Sheridan, presented to the students of Westminster College, their annual water pageant this spring. The pageant was held April 13 to April 17 in the college pool. Many weeks of hard work preceeded the graceful formations of pinwheels, ladders, and peel-off dives by forty-five bronze clad swimmers.

To become a Mermaid, each girl must pass certain tests in swimming, diving, and treading water. Of course, the main requirement is that the swimmer be graceful. Meetings, or practices, were held every Tuesday evening in the pool from seven to nine. In spite of wet hair and a few colds, the girls managed to survive the hours of practice to dash up to the Grill for a quick coke before heading back to the dorm.

Both in the fall and in the spring, the girls had a swimming party to which they invited their boyfriends. A lot of splashing, and a lot of drowning were the main events in these parties.

Mermaids were governed by four very efficient officers, Shirley Morgan, president; Jean Bricker, vice president; Audrey Bryan, secretary, and Marjorie Irwin, treasurer.

In 1948, for the second successive year, the annual poetry Reading Festival attracted more than 30 enthusiastic students. Adele Johnston won first place with readings from Robert and Elizabeth Barrett Browning. Ruth Vogan earned second prize with readings from Edgar Lee Masters, and Jean Johnston took third place with selections from the poems of T. S. Eliot and Wynstan Auden. Ethelene Myers' reading from Carl Sandburg earned an honorable mention. Professor Harold Brennan, Dr. Wayne Christie, and Mrs. McConagha judged the readings. The winners were also cited on the Honors Convocation program in March.

Professor George Bleasby of the English Department was assisted by Professor Forry, Miss Gilliland, and Mrs. Jones also of the department as faculty advisors. Miss Barnhill, Miss Risher, Miss Nixon, Dr. Schuster, Mr. Hopkins, Mr. Wiley, Miss Kocher, and Mr. Kelly judged in the preliminary round.

For the first time in the history of the Festival, a student committee took a direct share in the program arrangements. Lou Cummings headed the student committee which included James Young, Pat Marshall, Janet Foster, Dave Cornelius, and Janet Keller.

Pi Delta Epsilon Initiation

Pi Delta Epsilon, national journalism fraternity initiated eight new members into their organization from the three campus publications. New initiates are left to right: James Corry, Walter Abel, Lydia Zahariou, Peggy Morris, Ida Falsetti, William Guillion, Alan Brettel, and missing from the picture is Doris McQuigg. They are shown being welcomed into the organization by President Leonard Harding. Treasurer Phyllis Hall is pinning the carnations on the group while Nancy Lewis, secretary is shown holding the certificates of membership.

The "Hex" again rested on the shoulders of Westminister's gridders during the 1947 season as injuries side-lined three first string men before the season was fully underway.

"Mickey" McDaniel, fleet-footed halfback, was the first victim as he suffered a knee injury in the opening contest with Slippery Rock.

Walter Schumm, stellar left guard, was the next on the injured list as he was cleated badly in a practice session and the cut became infected as gangrene set in.

Joe Demoise, last year's all-state choice for fullback, had badly sprained ankles which finally gave out after the Juniata game in which he played fullback on the offense and tackle on the defense.

F O O T B A L L

Assistant Coach Thomas Weeter

The season's record of one win and seven losses was not too impressive as bad luck followed the Titans throughout their eight-game schedule.

The Blue and White opened with Slippery Rock at home on September 27. They failed to take advantage of three breaks which left them in scoring territory, two on recovered fumbles and one on a pass interception, and dropped a close one, 6-0.

On the following Saturday, October 4, the squad traveled to Juniata college where they dropped a 21-7 decision to the Indians. Demoise scored the lone Titan touchdown on a plunge through tackle and tossed an aerial to Joe Mastro for the extra point.

Saturday, October 11, found the Blue and White at home playing host to Thiel's Tomcats. It was the 39th meeting of the two teams with the Titans on top with 21 wins. That record stands at 21 wins, however, as the Blue and Gold came out on top, 24-6. Wally Weilgus came into his own in this contest as he accounted for 78 of Westminster's total 148 yards gained.

Learning the Fundamentals

Allegheny's Gators spoiled the Homecoming weekend festivities by defeating the Titans 14-7 before a large crowd of alumni and students on October 18, thus avenging last year's 14-0 loss to the Titans at the Allegheny college alumni weekend. Weilgus scored the Titans lone tally and Barnett kicked the extra point. Charles Deshler took over Demoise's punting duties in this game and averaged 37 yards per try for seven kicks.

The losing streak was finally ended on Saturday, October 25, as the Blue and White baffled the Bethany Bisons with some expert foot-work and landed in the win column with a 26-13 victory. Joe Mastro, senior quarterback, flipped three touchdown passes to Ed Sample, "Whitey" Wharton, and Jim Ross; and Fritz Evanoff intercepted an enemy pass and out-maneuvered 10 men as he went 40 yards for the final score.

Sharon's Contribution

Holding for the first three periods, the Titans were deluged with long runs in the final stanza of the Geneva contest on November 1, as they lost a 26-0 decision to the Covenanters under the lights. The Titan defense gave way just before the end of the third period and the Covies went on to score four times in the fourth quarter.

The squad traveled to Waynesburg Saturday, November 8, and dropped a 6-2 decision to the Yellowjackets which was in doubt until the final whistle. The Titans drew first blood in the third period as the forward wall tackled a Jacket runner behind his own goal for a two-pointer. The score remained 2-0 until, with a few seconds to go, Waynesburg pulled a sleeper play which was good for a touchdown, and a victory.

Playing ankle deep in mud, the Titans lost to Grove City college 24-0, on Saturday, November 15, before a capacity Father's Day celebration crowd. The Grover's combination of Cacamise and Shankle proved too much for the Titans who bogged down in the mire.

The Grove City contest was the season's finale and seven seniors wore the Blue and White uniform for the last time. Graduating this year will be: Mickey McDaniels, Joe Demoise, Joe Mastro, Walter Schumm, Ed "Porky" Kuseck, Ed Cray, and Bill Conrad.

The Titans did manage to salvage some individual honors during the 1947 season, as Joe Demoise was chosen on Juniata's all-opponent eleven and Ed Sample was picked by Allegheny's squad as a member of their all opponent team. Joe was outstanding during the time he was in action this year both offensively and defensively as he played both line and back-field positions. Ed Sample was superb on the defense and was noted for his vicious tackling. He was also a consistent player on the offense.

No one player on the squad could be called outstanding above the others, and, with a little luck, the majority of the scores could have gone the other way.

Coach Hetzler is to be commended on the splendid condition in which he keeps his squad and we who will be back next year expect much better days to come along.

 Second row: Norm Monack, manager, Lou Shirey, Lawrence Garret, Jack Ardolino, Norbert Borowicz, Champ Barthelson, Arthur Jones, John Esposito, John Chiodo, and Coach Harold Burry.
 Back row: Robert Orser, Alexander Spizak, Arthur Shaffer, Joseph Krakowski, Jerry Hyder, Robert Dunseath and Robert Buchanan.

Harold Burry, fielding a soccer team for the second year in the history of Westminster, ended a very successful season at New Wilmington against Grove City with a reversal of last year's record of one win and six losses and claiming possession of the mythical district soccer title. Ample revenge was awarded the booters as they walked off with wins from all of last year's opponents except Slippery Rock.

The Blue and White started their 1947 season off by traveling to Edinboro where they topped the Teachers, 2-0. Paul Sheaffer, team captain, scored both tallies for the Titans.

With one victory under their belts, the Titan booters traveled to Grove City with the hopes of spoiling the inaugural appearance of the Wolverines. The Blue and White held the upper hand throughout the contest and ended with a 1-0 win over the Grovers. Again it was Captain Sheaffer who booted the only and winning goal.

Playing their first home game of the season, the Burry booters laced Allegheny College, 6-2. Pete Moran drew first blood as he forced the goalie through the posts early in the opening stanza. Paul Sheaffer had a field day as he fired five goals past the amazed Gator goalie. He scored one goal in the second canto, two in rapid succession in the third quarter, and still not content, shot two more through in the final period.

Bit of Head Work

Manager Norman Monack

Running their string of consecutive victories to four, the Westminster soccer team defeated Thiel college, 2-0, at the New Wilmington field. Bill Kelly scored his first tally of the season and the first of the game early in the second period. Continuing his scoring ways, Sheaffer kicked through the final goal in the fourth quarter.

The Titan booters were dropped from the ranks of the undefeated and also suffered their only loss of the season at the hands of the Slippery Rock Teachers, as the Rockets played the ungrateful host and topped the Blue and White, 1-0. The Teachers kept a close tag on the Titans high scorer with two and sometimes three players covering him.

Meeting Crimson Tide

Pretty Toe Work

In a close and hard-fought battle on the Titan-town field, the Blue and White booters gained their revenge from a previous loss as they defeated the Carnegie Tech Tartans, 3-2. Bill Kelly, Paul Sheaffer, and Len Harding were the big guns for the Titans as they all contributed one goal to the win.

For the final game of the season, the Grove City booters were the guests of Westminster college. Playing the ungrateful host, the Blue and White kickers promptly polished off the Wolverines, 4-0. Paul Sheaffer ran his total of goals for the season to 11 against the Grovers, winding up a very successful year for both he and the team as a whole. Chuck Elgin, stellar center halfback, came through with his only scores for the season as he shot two past the Grover goalie. Jerry Hyder, freshman and a regular starter at the outside left position, scored his only goal on a head shot.

Besides having a successful season on the soccer field, Coach Burry was able to come across with a winning cross country squad, who ended their season with an enviable record of eight wins and one loss. The single set-back was handed them by the Pitt harriers.

Opening the season on the Slippery Rock course, Renny Jackson, Johnny Wilson and Don Yourd first one, two, three, respectively, as the thin-clad literally ran away with a 21-34 victory.

Coach Burry's Blue and White harriers came through again as they dropped the Geneva Covies, 23-32, at Beaver Falls. Renny Jackson and Johnny Wilson duplicated their first performance by finishing one, two ahead of the other runners.

Westminster's cross country team came through again the following week as they copped the first three places to defeat Slippery Rock for the second time, 20-35. As per usual it was Jackson, Wilson, and Yourd who placed first, second, and third in the order named. The "Running Reverend" Jackson covered the 5¾-mile course in 37 minutes and 16 seconds.

Performing before the home crowd for the first time, the Blue and White thin clad continued their winning ways by outpacing the Geneva squad, 22-35 to gain their fourth win of the year.

John Wilson

Renny Jackson and John Wilson, the Titans flying duet, were forced to finish in a dead heat for second place in their meet with the purple clad of Mt. Union as the Unionites grabbed first place but a few seconds ahead of the two Westminster runners.

Pitt university runners grabbed the first ten places to hand the Burry hill and dalers a 15-40 lacing.

The Titans came back to win over Bethany college, 26-29, Carnegie Tech, 22-33, and then end the season on a winning note with a 25-30 victory over the harriers from the University of West Virginia.

Coach Grover Washabaugh

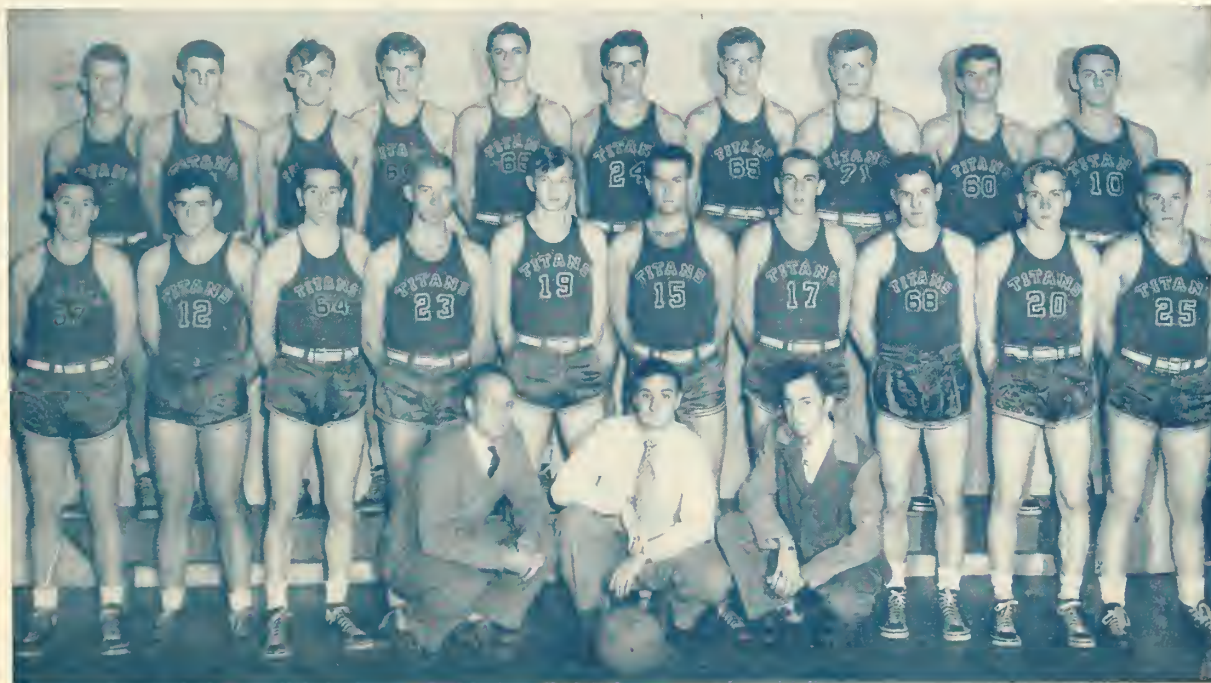

Opening the 1947-48 season on the local hardwood, the Titans downed the Teachers from Slippery Rock, 56-36. Tom Jones was high man for the Blue and White with 12 markers.

One week later Heddleston and Dembinski parted the cords for 16 points each as the Washabaughmen downed the Skibos from Carnegie Tech, 55-45, at the Tartan gym. The Plaid dribblers traveled to New Wilmington for the final game on the Westminster schedule and were handed a 69-52 defeat. Dembinski with 24 points and Bill McLhinney with 16 markers led the scoring parade.

The Millersville Teachers journeyed to Westminster, only to lose a hard-fought battle, 60-52. For the Tall boys, it was Heddleston and McCullough with 12 and 10 points respectively.

Three days later the Blue and White drib-blers participated in a fight to the finish ball game at Beaver Falls with Geneva college furnishing the opposition. The Westminster aggregation walked off with a 75-61 win thanks to the scoring of Dembinski, McCullough, T. Jones, Heddleston, and Bruce Wagner who tossed in a combined total of 65 points, which isn't bad.

Titans Lose

Hopeful of presenting Grover Washabaugh with a Christmas gift, the Titans motored to Altoona where they met the St. Francis college five. The Blue and White ended up on the short side of a 56-48 count. McCullough was high for the losers with 14 points.

Arnie Ferrin and Vern Gardner provided an evening's entertainment at Farrell, Jan. 2, as the two All-Americans along with the Utah basketball team, last year's NIT champions, romped home with a 49-36 win over the Towering Titans. The same evening both teams boarded a train for Cincinnati where they were scheduled to play in a double-header with the Blue and White meeting Miami university of Ohio. The Miami five upset the dope carts by defeating the Westminster dribblers, 56-47. For the Titans, it was Heddleston with 10 points and Wagner and McCullough with 9 each.

Following those two setbacks, the Washabaugh coached outfit came back strong and in the next three games rang up a total of 235 points to their opponents 159, walking over Bethany, Waynesburg, and Juniata in that order. The highest number of points for the season was registered against Juniata as the Blue and White chalked up 90 markers to the Indians 51 points.

Playing the ungrateful host, Westminster downed the Geneva Covies in a return match at New Wilmington, 66-45, as McCullough, Wagner, and McHinnery amassed a total of 39 points.

Lose in Philly

Independence hall, Philadelphia, was the location of the Titans next struggle when they met St. Joseph. Allan McCullough's display of ball handling won him the acclaim of all who were in attendance. He also garnered 18 points in an attempt to keep the Blue and White in the game. His efforts were to no avail as the Titans were downed, 75-66.

Before returning home from their eastern trip, the Blue and White met Millersville and Juniata for the second time. This time the Teachers dumped the Washabaugh dribblers, 64-61. Chet Dembinski, regular Titan center, was sidelined with the flu and during the course of the contest, Jerry Hyder collided with a Millersville player. Both players were carried from the floor. Hyder suffered a torn ligament in the knee and a bruised ear. These unfortunate injuries kept Jerry on the bench for several weeks. The Juniata contest went to Westminster, 71-50.

The home-and-home series with Thiel college proved disastrous for the Lutheranites from Greenville, Pa., as the Blue and White dropped them in two rough and tumble affairs, 71-44 and 73-53.

In a return engagement on the Slippery Rock court, the Rockets rode over the Titans, 77-60. Fouls played a major role in the loss with the Westminster starting five collecting 24 personal fouls against them.

Pitt Wins Two

For the first time in a number of years, the Pitt Panthers took both games in the home-and-home series from the Westminster hoopsters. At Farrell, the Doc Carlson cagers worked their figure eight offensive very effectively as they topped the Titans, 68-62. Gunning for revenge, the Blue and White traveled to the Pitt stadium for the return match and although Westminster held a small margin at half-time, the Pittites forged ahead in the final canto, smothering several Westminster rallies, to win, 58-54.

Playing the only afternoon game on their schedule, the Titans met the Presidents from Washington and Jefferson during Religious Emphasis Week and rolled over them with a decisive 75-39 win. For the third consecutive time, Wagner, McCullough, and Dembinski led the scoring. Wagner and McCullough garnered 13 markers each while Dembinski hit the hoop for 11 points. The game at Little Washington, Pa., went to the Titan aggregation as they walked off with a 67-57 win.

Bethany's Bisons, from down in the hills of West Virginia, made the going a little rough for the Blue and White dribblers as they grabbed a 26-8 first quarter lead. The inserting of two Titan subs, Bruce Wagner and Jackie Jones, proved to be the shot in the arm that Westminster needed as the Blue and White overcame the deficit and went on to win, 79-65. Bruce Wagner proved best for the Washabaugh floormen as he garnered 22 points for his evening's work.

Jackets in Upset

As a going away present and because everyone else was showering him with gifts, the Waynesburg Yellowjackets defeated the Towering Titans, 73-57, for their coach, Frank Gustine. Green county residents held Gustine Night for the celebrated Pittsburgh Pirates' third baseman who had guided Waynesburg College to one of the best seasons in the school's history.

Chet Dembinski topped the Westminster cagers in the scoring department for the third year in a row. This was also the second consecutive year that Chester was voted on the All-State second team by the Associated Press sports writers. The Titans grabbed three places within the first 14 of the districts leading scorers, as Dembinski, Wagner, and McCullough show a total of over 200 points each.

Dembinski is high man with 236 points, followed by Wagner with 233, and McCullough with 227.

Minor sports continued their prosperity and popularity in Westminister's 1947-48 athletic program. The swimming team came into the lime-light during the winter months as Coach Harold Burry's boys closed down the curtain with 11 wins while losing only one. The sole loss was to Fenn College of Cleveland, 47-28. The Titan mermen ran into tough competition when they met Fenn who owns several Olympic prospects.

The tankmen opened their season late in December with Washington and Jefferson and came home with a 51-15 victory under their belts. Slippery Rock was next to bow to the Blue and White as the team opened the new year with a 41-25 victory in the home pool. The Titans beat the Rockets in a return engagement 40-26.

Burry's tankmen started an eight-meet victory string after losing to Fenn, by downing Allegheny and Grove City twice. The Luther-anites from Thiel college were next to fall as the Titans won an easy 57-17 victory. Edinboro and Geneva proved easy victims as Westminister downed them 55-11 and 60-6, respectively.

After the victory over the Geneva Covies, the Titans entered the Penn-Ohio championship meet in Pittsburgh at the Carnegie Tech pool.

As expected, our mermen came out on top by racking up 56 points to Slippery Rock's 37, who finished in second place. Carnegie Tech wound up in the third place slot with 34, Allegheny fourth with 32, followed by Edinboro who managed to garner 9 points. Washington and Jefferson finished last, failing in their attempt to score a single point.

The Blue and White, then took on Carnegie Tech and whipped them, 49-25.

The team not only finished with a successful win and loss record, but at the same time they broke several important pool and individual records. The team of Holt, Nelson, and Hall established a new record of 3:21.4 for the 300 yard relay at the Allegheny tank. The boys had a field day at Thiel when they broke three marks, two of them by Bob Hall. Hall set new records in the 200 and 400 yard freestyle, while Ted Holt established a new mark in the 150 yard backstroke of 1:52.5.

Holt's big day came in the Penn-Ohio swim meet when he finished ahead of the pack in 1:51.9, in the trial heat to equal his 1947 pool record. Then, in the final heat Holt crossed the line in 1:49.8, cutting two seconds from his previous record time. In the home pool, Holt accomplished the feat of breaking his own record and finally ending with a new record time for the Titan tank of 1:46 against Geneva.

Captain William Wallace

Bob Hall again went to town when he broke two more marks in a single meet in the home tank. He set new records in the 220 and 440 yard freestyle events. Last year Hall smashed the pool record of 5:33 in the 440 by breasting the tape in 5:26. His new marks for the 220 and the 440 are 2:24.5 and 5:22, respectively.

Adding another page to their book of records, the Blue and White tankmen participated in the first swim meet ever to be televised. A Cleveland station televised the Titan-Fenn college meet in the Fenn pool.

The total points earned by each member of the team is as follows:

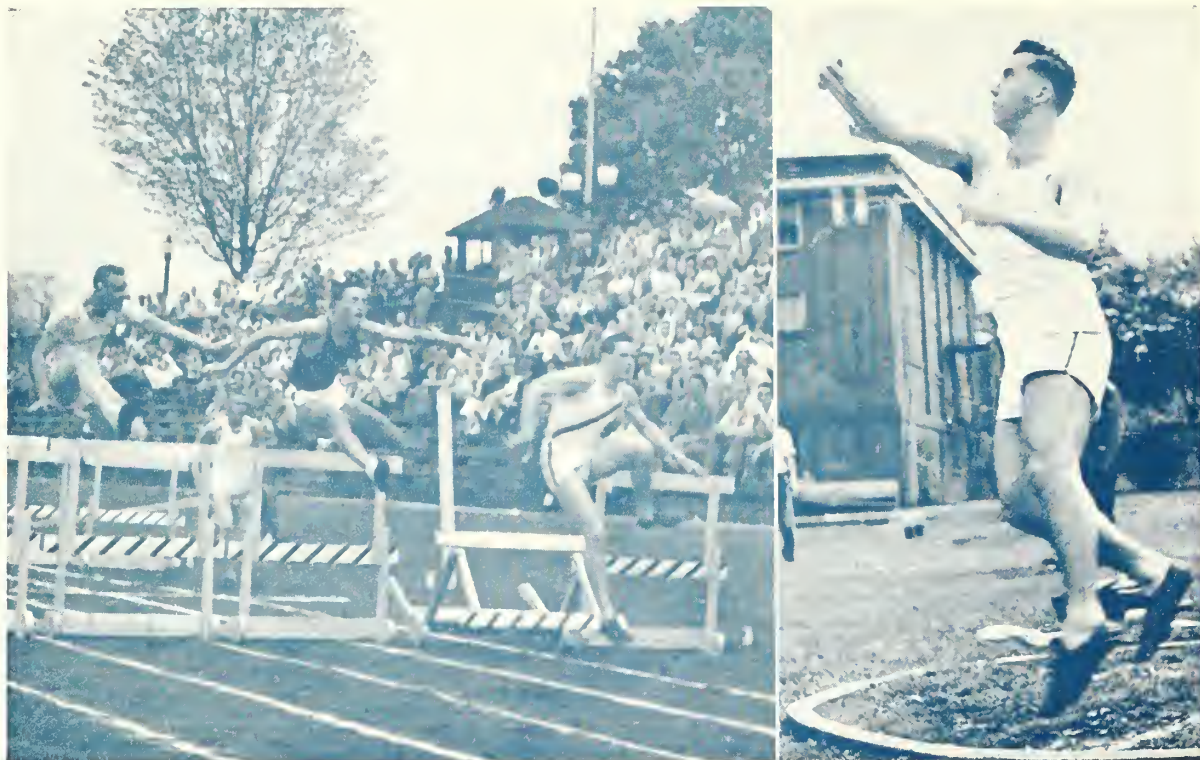

Hall	119
Holt	95
Simon	90
Pitcher	72
Wallace	68
Nelson	56
Swan	28
Braun	21
Cassell	20
Reichert	20

With approximately 36 candidates working out in preparation for the 1948 season opener April 29 at Slippery Rock, Coach Harold Burry holds great expectations for this year's track and field squad. Last year's team, lacking in experience and the first since the end of the war, ended the season with a .500 average in district competition, winning two and losing two. They also finished seventh in a Tri-State meet.

In the season's opener last year, the Blue and White thinclads nipped the Geneva Covies at Beaver Falls. This victory was followed by two defeats suffered at the hands of Carnegie Tech and Grove City. The Titan trackmen ended their season at Meadville in a triangular meet competing against the Allegheny college outfit with the Grove City squad adding color to the meet by also taking on the Gators. The Blue and Gold of Allegheny lost out all the way around with the Burrymen and the Grovers emerging victorious.

Bob Hall, Renny Jackson, Johnny Wilson, and Don Yourd were the distance men for Westminster. Len Harding, Mark Gleeson, Bob Fields, Ben Bolt, Frank Moore, Adam Bartkowski and Akio Aburano ran the middle distance. In the field events, it was Acky Copetas, Joe Demoise, Bill Conrad, Tom Swan, Garvin Timms, Jack Willey, Jack Torrey, Chuck Wolfe, Kenny Gibson, Dave Gillespie, Henry Vitkovitch, and Ed Cray who carried their Alma Mater's colors into battle.

Eight of the 23 candidates out for the running events are veterans of last year's squad and in the field events three out of 13 are holdovers.

Running the distance, sprints, and related events will be Akio Aburano, Matt Brown, Dick Coleman, Bill Duff, R. Dunlap, Bob Field, Dave Gillespie, Len Harding, Renny Jackson, Art Jones, Bill Jones, Frank Jones, Frank LeFurgy, Hank McGinnis, Fred Navarra, Ray Op'thof, Chuck Paul, B. Rothey, Dick Wakefield, Johnny Wilson, Don Yourd, Tom Swan, and Bob O'Melia.

Pole vaulting, throwing the discus, shot, javelin, and miscellaneous events will be the job of Richard Paul, B. Mitchell, Jim Hazlett, Ed Cray, Henry Vitkovitch, Bill LeFevre, Champ Barthelson, Tom Replogle, Jack Cooper, Jack Torrey, Paul Kolterjahn, Harold Wareham, and Norb Borowicz.

Kneeling is Barker, the pro at the New Castle Country Club who is assisting the golfers. Coach Thomas is missing from the picture.

Interest in golf at Westminster struck a new high the past spring when the linksmen won 12 of 14 matches against the strongest collegiate teams in the area. Many sports writers rated the team with the best in the East.

The outstanding feat of the niblick wielders was their convincing 12-6 win over a highly touted West Virginia University team at the New Castle Field club. The Mountaineers reversed the tables at West Virginia.

The only other match which Captain Jim Salsgiver and his mates lost was at Grove City. The veteran Grover team shot brilliant golf on their home course but it was a different story at the Field club.

The team won the home-and-away series with Geneva, Youngstown, Slippery Rock, Carnegie Tech, and Edinboro.

Brightest part of the golf story is that most of the boys are underclassmen. Salsgiver has another year of eligibility while Bill Burke, No. 2 ace, will be a junior. Sid Lucas, Fred Broad, Jack Winters, and Jack Whitmer were freshmen. Bill Paul and Richard Fuhrer, other lettermen, were sophomores.

Coeds at Play

Interest in women's intramural activities was greatly accelerated last year, with a higher enrollment in the freshmen class. Several freshmen girls have left their names in the record books for volleyball and basketball.

The six sororities and Independent Women started the school year with a volleyball league, under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Sheridan. It didn't take long for Independent Women to capture the lead in the hot race, and then skidded home with the championship. The Theta U's were a close second and the Chi O's finished in the third slot.

At the end of the season, the Women's Athletic Association sponsored two volleyball games with a similar team from Slippery Rock State Teachers College. Our girls really poured it on as they defeated the Rockets in both contests.

The games were hard fought and were enjoyed by everybody who took part. Those who showed outstanding ability in the game are: Audrey Bryan, Ida Falsetti, Ann Hope, Kathy Gammon, Gloria Jenzer, Jean Gilliland, Jean Leighty, Caroline King, Marion Laughlin, Norma Hasselman, and Lou Cummings.

Basketball came into the limelight with the opening of the new year. Nearing the completion of the season, the Chi O's, Independent Women, and the Beta Sigs fought it out for top honors.

Again, Marion Laughlin and Norma Hasselman were the outstanding players of the season. Marion captured the high scoring honors while Norma followed with a close second. Other girls who showed special ability were: Jean Basher, Sally Groetzinger, Martha Tidd, M. L. Cleland, and Marge Boyd.

We pay special tribute to Mrs. Sheridan, without whose efforts the games and all the fun would not have been possible.

Westminster's 1948 Mock Republican National Convention

"Harold E. Stassen's lucky number turned out to be 13 when he was nominated as the candidate for President of the United States on the 13th ballot at Westminster's Mock National Political Convention early this morning. California's Governor Earl Warren was chosen as his running mate on the second ballot.

"Amid cheers of Stassen boosters the count on the final ballot was announced at approximately 1:30 a. m., giving Mr. Stassen the victory by a narrow margin of 59 votes. Governor Thomas E. Dewey of New York, runner-up in the contest, received 264 tallies to Stassen's 323."

Such was the HOLCAD account of the last of three hectic days, April 6, 7, and 8, spent in the college gymnasium. Days of campaign promises, loud speakers blaring, campus-wide music, posters and banners flying, all turned the peaceful campus into a political stronghold.

Planning for the event of the year began in early February when Harry S. Manley, convention advisor, collected a small group of students into his office and gave details which began a steady stream of meetings, lectures, planning and preparing.

Original members of the mock convention committee were: John Kerensky, George Henshaw, Dick Beveridge, Edward Dotten, Fred Davis, Lois Kolb, Lois Jack, Dale Johnson, Leslie Jones, Pete Moran, Glenn Reed, Bob Skagenberg, Bob Patton, Nancy Horn, William Miller, Clifford O'Key, and Jim Oravetz.

Following several days of explanation in chapel services, students began signing for states which they wished to represent during the convention. Campaign managers began urging for signatures that would admit their candidates for nomination. Backed with funds allocated by the college, managers began printing posters and wrote to national campaign headquarters desiring material of their candidates.

Committees were organized and backed such national figures as Thomas E. Dewey, Douglas MacArthur, Arthur Vandenberg, Joseph Martin, Robert Taft, Earl Warren, and Harold Stassen.

Then came the week of the convention. Leon H. Gavin, Republican member of the House of Representatives, delivered the keynote address to a cheering crowd of "boys and girls." The gym, decorated with flags, bunting, and loaded with benches and state designations, rocked with the noise of marching feet, blaring bands, and screaming loud speakers.

John Kerensky was chosen chairman of the Mock Convention and steered a battling assembly through hours of debating and demonstrations. Convention committees were set up and ordered to report the following day.

Wednesday's meeting saw the convention rules rushed through with the party platform going through only after careful deliberation and thought.

Edited by a convention committee, two special newspapers were published and distributed.

Visitors from the surrounding districts crowded into the stands to watch the sessions. Students from various high schools attended en masse. Local newspaper reporters covered the convention and considered it the "real McCoy."

The final sessions demanded hours for recording votes and tests of candidate strength. Nominees were dropped by their backers as the evening lengthened when no chance was seen of their victory. Midway through the balloting, backers of General Dwight Eisenhower tried to bandwagon him into the spotlight, but failed when the delegates refused to give their support.

On into the morning the balloting ran until the rules committee entered a motion that a simple majority be required to swing a candidate. Whooping Stassen supporters pushed the motion through and on the following ballot, their candidate was chosen. Time—1:30 a. m.

As a climax to the political activities, a small faculty-student delegation traveled to Youngstown and formally notified Harold Stassen of his nomination. The former Minnesota governor discussed political topics with the students with the affair being recorded and broadcast over New Castle's WKST.

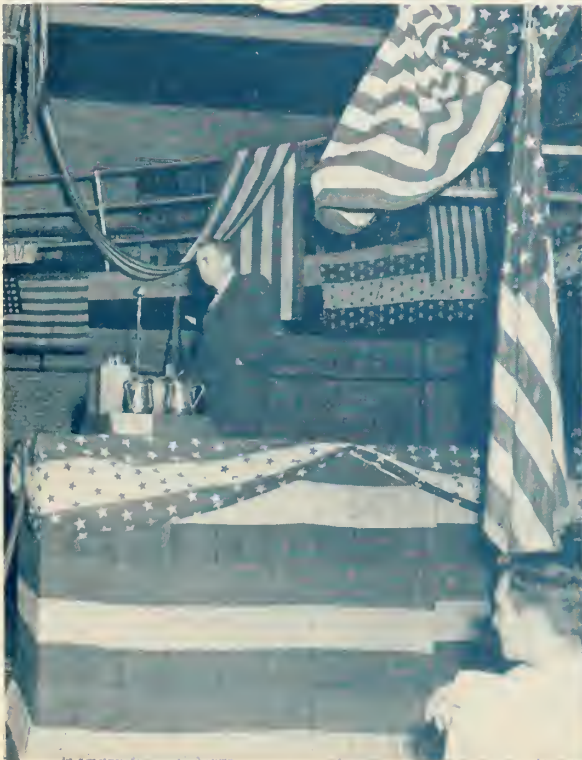

The campus relaxed. Signs were removed and expenses tabulated. Reports were written and filed. Another convention had passed and the ivy covered walls settled down . . . awaiting a new outbreak four years hence.

President McKinley's Father

Built an

Oldforge

The man who built into his son the character that made him President, made quality metals. When the President, yet a boy, tramped the hills of New Wilmington, his father built a furnace and smelted iron of unusual quality. Into the iron, as well as the boy, were infused such quality, such strength, that they merited the confidence and good will of a nation.

The memory of William McKinley and the ruins of his father's furnace linger today as monuments of strength to men and metals. Today, in the shadow of the McKinley furnace, Oldforge tools are forged and treated by master toolsmiths. Super-quality is the result, and is offered to the critical tests of experts

ROSY FUTURE

The future of America does not depend entirely upon what is done in Washington. Rather it is in the hands of the men and women who go forth from our colleges and universities to do their share in making a new world. We are confident that you will accept your responsibilities and the future of America will remain bright.

...and we had music, too

The Class of 1948 leaves and with them they take a portion of what Westminster was to us . . .

The various pledge trips conspired by them, Monday night meetings, "father and son dinners," and the after-effects . . . their plans, their jokes, their ideas . . . as much a part of Westminster as the tower bells.
